Applicants note that the Issue Fee notification and other recent documents have been addressed to the law firm of Westerman, Hattori, Daniels & Adrian, LLP. This law firm has never represented Applicants in connection with this or any other matter and Applicants do not know how their name got associated with this application.

On November 12, 2003, Applicants' undersigned counsel filed a Change of Address and Change of Attorney Docket form together with a Response to the Office Action dated July 25, 2003. The undersigned counsel has represented Applicants in connection with this matter since its inception. A copy of the Change of Address and Change of Attorney Docket forms filed on November 12, 2003 are attached hereto.

My secretary, Nancy Flannigan, called the Patent Office to inquire why another law firm had sent us documents that should have come to us and she was informed that it was a Patent Office error and to submit a correction when submitting the Part B Fee(s) Transmittal Document.

The enclosed Part B Fee(s) Transmittal Document has been annotated to reflect the appropriate address of Applicants' counsel but it is requested that the official records of the United States Patent and Trademark Office also be changed to reflect to the correct name of Applicants' counsel and its address.
